• Why pay attention to this book? Most important since Rachel Carson's Silent Spring. Tells the truth about what brought us to this moment and the urgency of this moment.	- Remember 2010 5 min video 4Years ago said had until 2015. Here we are – jarring events – what events have jarred you? In PAIRS: - What have been your feelings about these events (reading this book every chapter made me angry!) - Where have you seen glimmers of hope/possibility?	• Trailer (10): link below - Scenes recall? - What is needed? - How describe the movement that is already here? (last 3 min) • Review Intro / Conclusion: - What did you highlight? Remember? - Where resonate with NK in intro/concln? - What questions leave with you? - What is the call to action?	• 9:15: At tables: "What are the practical implications (actions) of our experience and Klein's insights for ICA's mission to "Build a just and equitable society in harmony with Planet Earth?" - 20 min and write 3 best actions – 1 per page) • 9:45 Share from each table 3 best practical implications (actions) from conversation - Where similarities? - What as stand back from this brainstorm resonates most with you out of these dozen ideas?	• Sing: Sing for the Climate • What would "cacophonous world conversation look like?" (raucous, jarring people out of denial to creating a better future) David Korten: Change the story, change the future (own the story, own the future)
