3 Community Resilience Dialogues

ICA Taiwan invites you to the APRC pre-conference which will showcase 3 innovative collaborations among community initiatives. Participants will have the opportunity to attend one of the three sessions. Although each session will have a different content focus, the flow of the three days will be similar.

During the three days participants will :

Learn about the local initiative and share your experiences in this arena → Work with a team to co-design a facilitated session → Co-facilitate or participate in the session to help the initiative move forward → Harvest lessons learnings and next steps → Create a report for the APRC conference and think through implications for your work.

Nov. 16th

OpenSpace on ToP Asia @ Taipei

Addressing Issues and Opportunities for Expanding and Adapting ICA Technology of Participation (ToP) in Asia and Greater China. This is an opportunity for the group to explore what is happening, what is needed and what projects and processes to take forward.

Open Space Technology helps individuals and groups become more effective in their work environment. OST captures the knowledge, experience, and innovation of individuals and then invites them to work together toward implementation.

Fee : NTD. 1,500 (USD 55)

(Include lunch and snacks, does not including housing, breakfast, or dinner)

Nov. 17th - 18th

Spirit of Facilitation @ Taipei

The Spirit of Facilitation (SOF) is designed for people who have previously attended ICA or other facilitation courses and have some experience using their facilitation skills in their work, in relationships and in other organizational interactions. As a person gains competency and experience in basic facilitative methods (whether in group setting or one-to-one as in coaching or mentoring), what does he/she need in order to more effectively recognize and tap into spirit for authenticity, high performance and productivity?

We will reflect on the importance of context, intention, values and purpose. The discipline and stance of "Yes," being open to facilitating what is happening, rather than what I think should be happening emerges.

We hope you will join us for this interactive learning experience.

Fee : NTD. 12,000 (USD 440)

(Include lunch and snacks, does not including housing, breakfast or dinner)
